KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, by less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs. Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers, and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance. Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

FASHIONS AT SARATOGA.

MORNING GOWNS: GRASS LINES AND BUTTER LACE: COLLETTES: DRIVING COUTURES: CAPES.

A complete subservience to Fashion, or an equal independence regarding it, often bring about very amusing contrasts in dress; such as are seen nowhere else in America, and this daily panorama constitutes one of the principal attractions of Saratoga.

Persons who court notoriety, find in the hotel piazzas or dining rooms, an ever fresh opportunity for the display of elegant costumes or jewelry; usually however, people of high refinement, shrink from anything like conspicuous attire. Breakfast hours show the greatest variety of costume, as those who have an outdoor excursion in view, wear plaques, linen, serge or duck "tailor made" suits, or the still popular black crepon or brilliantine skirts, with cambric, silk or any fancy waist; while those who intend lingering for an hour or two (particularly the nouveaux riches) often wear superb crepon or silk morning gowns—marvels of beauty; the wavy irregularities, silky, light-hued crepon, reminding one of fleecy, sunset clouds.

THESE LOVELY TOILETS are trimmed with silk crepe or fine lace, and being lined with silk, the effect is as soft and harmonious as a tinted sea-shell. Handsome silks are worn in the morning, with equally rich hats and parasols, and as elbow sleeves are very fashionable, long, light-colored gloves follow as a matter of course—imparting a very dressy appearance. Grass linen (or linen batiste) and narrow "butter" lace are a combination which has spread like "wild-fire," and although a plain and inexpensive fabric, when the perforated varieties are made up over silk, it becomes a different matter. Plain grass linen is just as stylish as the perforated, and waists, collets or fronts are seen everywhere, and fifteen lengthswise rows of "butter" lace on a sleeve (in three clusters) is not an exaggeration.

LARGE COLLETTES are of plain or perforated grass linen, edged with embroidery as stylish as the State, and small embroidered batiste collars and cuffs are worn to an unlimited extent. The neutral tint of grass linen is extremely trying, colored satin ribbon stoles obviate that difficulty to a certain extent, and a pure white linen batiste collette, often ornaments a grass linen waist both lavishly trimmed with narrow "butter" lace. Exquisitely fine white nainsook, Swiss muslin or white linen batiste embroidered yokes afford a pretty contrast to grass linen, being used in much the same way, and just now, artificial flowers are very generally worn on collars, caps, dresses or parasols, and the sweet fragrance of Murray & Lamm's Florida water is just as stylish as the perfume, naturally conveying the impression that they belong to Nature rather than art.

MOHAIR in varied colors, is very stylish this season for driving costumes, or tulle silk costumes trimmed with colored velvet or satin ribbon and lace, are noticeably popular, for afternoon, in which case, no change of dress for dinner or evening is necessary. White parasols give their peculiar finish to all costumes; therefore they are in the majority on the verandah or on afternoon excursions, and ostrich feathers on large Leghorns are in keeping, imparting an air of elegance, which is not obtained by any other millinery garniture.

LADIES CLOTH in very pale shades, lined with plaided silk, is the favored material for driving capes, as it sheds the dust and rain, and is soft and clinging. For cool evenings, colored velvet capes, almost covered with white lace present a very dashing appearance, or white or colored satin capes are similarly trimmed with jetted or plain lace. The newest capes in Saratoga are two of black Marquis lace, sent direct from Paris, for two society belles, and are full around the lower part, and longer than any of the stylish Spring or Summer capes.

VERONA CLARKE. [Live Stock Record.]

There is but one opinion about city pool-rooms and all foreign books and pools which is that they are an unmitigated nuisance and should be suppressed by law. They are detrimental to race meetings, and do nothing to encourage the breeding of good horses. They are nothing but gambling dens, and are on a precise level with faro banks. If the latter should be abolished so also should the former. No respectable trotting or racing-horse man that we know of desires their perpetuation. Only those who are free and unlimited gambling, with the profits in the relation of sixteen (or more) to one, ask for their continuance. The sentiment among genuine horsemen is strongly against them, and public opinion generally is in line with this sentiment. There is probably no State in the Union that has not or will not legislate against them. They differ as widely from the sort of betting that is permitted on respectable tracks as day from night.

The friends of the city pool-room and foreign books, who are the men who share the profits, have invented a new theory. They now say that State legislatures can not interfere with them, because the constitution of the United States gives Congress exclusive authority over inter-state commerce. It is rather a novel idea that the gambling carried on in these institutions should be dignified by the name of commerce; but passing that question, their contention is not tenable. It omits to consider very important distinctions. It may be true that a State could not, under a very liberal construction of the inter-state commerce provision of the constitution, prohibit a permanent pool-room for the purpose of what is going on at a particular race track. It may also be true that a particular State, under the same provision, could not prevent a man in Ohio, for example, from sending money to Kentucky to bet on a certain horse, or on any horse. To this extent it is possible that the constitution might not apply, but certainly no further. A State can not say, for example, that whisky can not be shipped into it from another State, but it can say, if it sees fit, that it shall not be sold within its borders. So with any other article of commerce whatever. It can not without infringing the constitution enact a law that no house or part of a house shall be kept open for the sale of any prohibited article.

And after any article once arrives in the State it may define the purpose for which it may be sold, and the manner in which it may be sold. In States which have passed laws prohibiting the sale of spirituous liquors the sale of liquors may be entirely inhibited without, so far as we are informed, a violation of the constitution. For like reasons it is entirely competent for State legislatures to enact that no pool-rooms or places for the making of foreign books shall be kept in the State, and it may prohibit these acts by sufficient penalties. It can also deny the right of any one in the State to enter such a pool-room for the purpose of purchasing pools or of making bets.

If these propositions should be unopposed, and if it be true that the foreign book-maker and pool-seller are protected by the inter-state commerce clause of the constitution, then we are not without remedy. In that event Congress certainly has jurisdiction so far as such a law passed by a State would be in conflict with the constitution. Congress could then enact a law that would prohibit the sale of foreign pools, and each State could regulate these matters so far as events within its own limits were concerned.

Members of Congress come from the different States and partake of the sentiment of the people within the States. No one pretends that it is not entirely competent for State legislatures to

THE CLIMAX.

WEDNESDAY, - JULY 24, 1895.

Notice of Change.

As the CLIMAX has changed ownership, all persons indebted to it by account are requested to settle at once. The old business must be adjusted, and that without delay.

—Sunday's rain was another "ground sucker."

—Good Grass for rent—see ad of G. J. White & Son.

—Cassius Marcellus, child of Launey Clay, died at Stanton.

—J. Allen Embury lives at Waco and J. Embury Allen at Lexington.

—Nunn was held without bail at Lancaster for killing Bill Best.

—Look about the Fair grounds and see if any yellow walls are visible.

—"Ball" Baxter, son of the late Homer G. Baxter, is ill with lung trouble.

—A two-story frame residence building on Irvine street, near Fair ground gate.

—The concerns that handle the most money don't have a treasurer—banks, for instance.

—Our Perkins correspondent, Jay Ell Esq., has a wheelbarrow load of news in this issue.

—French & Green have closed out their lively business at London and returned to Madison.

—Have you seen Cole Taylor's combined swing, rocking chair, bicycle and rowing machine?

—Word from Lexington, Sunday, was to the effect that Miss Mattie Tribble is improving and may be at home before long.

—Business at the Second National Bank has increased so much that an extension of the counter space has been found necessary.

—Henry Duncan, colored, well-known horse trainer, died yesterday, aged probably 55 years, and leaves a wife and ten children.

—A herder is wanted to mind the flocks that do congregate on North Second, Broadway, Walnut and North R. Cross streets.

—Some times it is not much to be either a prophet or a son of a prophet, or even both, for there is Bud Prophet in jail at Winchester for stealing a horse.

—Hon. John S. Phelps has been nominated by the Democrats of Fayette county for Representative, and Hon. C. J. Johnston for the Senate—both Madison county men.

—The nearly all-the-time-accurate Danville Advocate located the Republican National Convention at Winchester, evidently getting the convention and the hanging confused.

—Referring to High Oaks Sanitarium, yesterday, a well known man from old merchant called it Oakley, which showed where his mind, as well as the horses, was running.

—A pavement is being laid from Broadway to Walnut, along B. street, and will be of advantage to the residents of Walnut and Prather streets where a dozen or more horses have been built the last year or so.

—Miss Margaret Johnson, daughter of ex-Mayor Laude Johnson and niece of Gen. John Morgan, eloped to Baltimore last Thursday, and married Mr. Louis Brown, City Ticket Agent of the C. & O. at Lexington.

—When one of the Mt. Sterling delegates to the Republican convention at this place, last Tuesday, heard of the hanging at Winchester he remarked with considerable feeling, "then Winchester people mustn't be more'n hangers."

—Rev. R. R. Noel and son, Marshall, have rented Mr. J. B. Higgins's coal house and purchased his good will and a portion of his team and will continue the business at the old stand. The junior member of the firm will attend to the business to a great extent and Mr. Noel will continue his evangelistic work, in which he has been very successful.—Interior Journal.

—Held to Answer.

The three colored rapists were tried, Friday, and held for grand jury examination. Bail $300 each, in default of which were sent to jail.

Winchester Fair.

See advertisement of the Winchester Fair in to-day's CLIMAX. More than $2000 in premiums, besides cups, medals, and other prizes. Commotions stand, excellent track.

Wheat Coming In.

Zaring has brought 10,000 or 12,000 bushels of wheat in the county at 50 to 55 cents. He says that wheat is lighter by two pounds of flour to the bushel than it has been at any time since he came to the county.

More Than Half a Million Dollars.

Statements of the four national banks of Richmond exhibit $521,915.00 in liability deposit. This is the amount of money the people have left at the banks for safe keeping, and on which they can check at pleasure.

Crowd Went to High Bridge Sunday.

The R. N. I. & B. special, Sunday, carried one hundred and fifty persons from Madison to High Bridge Camp Meeting, about half of them being from Richmond. Considerable number from Estill county, and accessions were made all along the line. Tallmage was one of the speakers. The "Colonels" made the music.

Herndon's Wheat.

J. W. Herndon has delivered to Zaring sixteen hundred bushels of wheat at the best price paid yet. The wheat is extra quality and will be made into high grade flour. The average per acre was only 16 bushels.

Dock Herndon has 26 acres of barley that produced 864 bushels.

Billy Patterson, Jr., Dead.

Wm. B. Patterson, of Yates Creek, went to Knoxville, New Mexico, last March for his health, as he had consumption. Not improving he went 70 miles north into the Rockies, but grew worse and died there July 1st, aged 19 years. He was the only child of the late Billy Patterson. His mother was a sister of George Milton of Million Station.

Mr. Turley as a Frontispiece.

A large firm at Syracuse, New York, has just published an extensive and elegant business catalogue. The front page is adorned with a "lone fisherman" and Mr. Green B. Turley, of this place was selected as the model. With that new suit that he wore to the Republican convention and equipped with red, pole and minnow bucket, he looks "immense" as the saying goes.

Pools Sold.

Pools sold, last night, on to-day's races as follows: 2:25 pace, 3 in 5, Placemineum favorite. 3-minute pace, Julian May favorite.

First Day of the Fair.

Fair crowd and good rings. Horses interesting, and a larger number of horses present than usual. Big crowd expected to-day. Prof. Herbert's band is receiving applause.

Kentucky River.

It is said that the Chief of Engineers in charge of rivers and harbors will recommend to the next Congress that an appropriation of $500,000 can be profitably spent during the next fiscal year on improvements of the Kentucky River. This is a matter of some interest to our citizens, and it is hoped that the recommendation will be acted upon.—Frankfort Capital.

He's Satisfied.

"You seem to be deeply absorbed in a great array of figures," we remarked to ex-Sheriff J. W. Bales, whom we found standing at the Street, Saturday, carefully scrutinizing a statement of the Hanover National Bank of New York.

"Well, I have some stock in this concern and I was just looking at the last report," he replied.

"How do you like it?" we asked.

"Oh, I can't kick," he said; "individual deposits are $6,494,000 and surplus fund $1,800,000."

New Business Manager at Ford.

The business of the Asher Lumber Company at Ford, which is one of the largest concerns of its kind in the State, is now under the management of C. W. Burt, late of Saginaw, Michigan, who succeeds Capt. J. B. Thomas as manager.

Mr. Burt, who has been in the lumber business since 1870, and his father own a majority of the stock in the company which is capitalized at $1,000,000. The elder Mr. Burt was a few years ago the Democratic candidate for Governor of Michigan, and Mr. C. W. Burt is a young man of pleasant address and we gladly welcome such an acquisition to the business men of our county.—Winchester Democrat.

Cut the Matter Short.

The Railroad Commissioner Convention, which was in session, Tuesday night, when the CLIMAX went to press, completed its work about 1 o'clock by nominating John C. Wood, of Mt. Sterling, as no conclusion could be reached at Louisville, which failure necessitated the adjourned meeting, it was not thought a nomination would be reached before Wednesday or Thursday. Four hundred delegates were present.

Comings of Covington, Wood's strongest opponent, was steadily opposed by twelve delegates from his own city. He had been collector of internal revenue, and the opposing twelve had failed to get any pie. This thing of Federal patronage is not a peep's symposium.

Found Daniel Boone's Grave.

"Boys, come round here and look at old Dan Boone's grave," said a Republican delegate to a group of friends at the court house, Tuesday last week, during the railroad commissioner's convention. He took them to the Spire Boone rock that stands in the front yard. With evident pride the fellow pointed to the rock and said, "now look at that—aint that great?" One of the others suggested that the inscription said "Spire" and not "Daniel." "Oh, that's nothing," said the discoverer, "you see old Dan was one of the Magistrates of the county, and they called him Spire." That seemed to settle the question, and after walking around the rock a good many times, and wondering whether "ol' Dan" was laid with his feet to the East or the West, they went away satisfied.

Concerted Action for a Rehearing in the Bank Tax Case.

A Paducah telegram says that County Judge Thomas, of that city, has mailed a thousand circular letters to the various Mayors, City Attorneys, County Judges and court officials of the State requesting their co-operation in securing a new hearing in the bank tax case.

The proposition recommends that the County Judges of each county, immediately call the Fiscal Court of his county together and the Mayor his Council and each take such action as it may deem proper in the premises; that the respective bodies named appoint or authorize some one or more persons, by order of record, to represent it in a meeting to be held in the city of Louisville on the 15th inst. at 10 o'clock, for the purpose of presenting to the question as to whether the tax is a perfect revenue, and the best course to be pursued may be fully discussed.

Known Here.

Everybody, familiar with the vehicles that traverse the streets of Richmond, knows the little gilt-mounted wagon that bears the name of Frank Fehr. Mr. Fehr and Miss Pauline Hecht will be married July 24 at the Richelieu Hotel in Chicago. The matter has been whispered about for some time. The ceremony will take place at 7 o'clock, and only the immediate friends and relatives of the parties will be present. No cards have been issued.

Mr. Fehr is the son of the late Frank Fehr. His interests in the City Brewery are extensive. Miss Hecht is a fair Chicago girl, and a native of this city. Mr. Fehr met her while he was taking a course in the Chicago Brewing Institute. The best man will be Mr. George Kremer and Miss Lizzie Fehr will be bridesmaid. In this connection it might be stated that the last named couple will themselves march to the altar before many months and be a married couple.

Death of James Hodgkin, Sr.

Mr. James Hodgkin, one of Clark county's best citizens, died at his home on South Main street, in this city, last Tuesday afternoon, July 16th.

He was born in 1820, hence was in his 75th year. He was twice married his first wife being Ormie Quisenberry, his last wife Mrs. Gillespie. Eight children survive him, Samuel J., Tandy Q., Philip, John M., P. Bush, William, Rachel and Mrs. J. B. Martin.

Deceased was for, perhaps, fifty years a member of the Christian church, and for many years was an Elder in the Forest Grove church, of this county.

Mr. Hodgkin and Mr. E. C. Browning who died a few days since were schoolmates and warm, devoted friends, and it was remarked at the time of the latter's death, that the two would not long be separated.—Winchester Democrat.

T. Q. Hodgkin, many years ago, was a partner of Dan T. Smith in the clothing business in Richmond.

—The R. S. C. gave a most delightful hop at the Glyndon last night, Saxton furnishing the music.

"Have tried others, but like Ayer's best" is the statement made over and over again by those who testify to the benefit derived from the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Disease never had a greater enemy than this powerful blood purifier. It makes the weak strong.

Lamb Shipments.

J. W. Bales & Co. have shipped three thousand lambs, average weight, 75 pounds. The price has been 4 @ 44 cents. This is about half the season's purchases by this firm.

Texas Fever.

Texas fever, that dread cattle disease, is spreading rapidly, and unless the State Board of Health is aroused from its lethargy it will become epidemic throughout the State. It is now epidemic in Oldham and Jefferson counties in a virulent form, and is growing worse and spreading each day.

The disease first appeared three weeks ago, and has rapidly spread until it will take drastic measures to eliminate it, or even to check its spread. Had the disease been taken in hand when it first appeared it could have been easily checked, while now it will be a difficult matter.

Cattle are dying in great numbers, one dairyman has lost 14 out of 32 cows, while another has lost 33 out of 135, with a fair prospect of losing his whole herd.—Louisville Post.

Thrilling Incident of the Railroad Commissioner Convention.

A colored delegate, Gaines, from Kenon county, was discussing the report of the Committee on Credentials and stated that his side had not received fair treatment at the hands of the committee. A white delegate, Lyons, of Campbell county, arose and pronounced the state of Gaines "an infernal lie." A whirl of excitement followed, and the convention, but Gaines waved his hand quietly, and in a most deliberate, distinct and pointed way replied: "I know that I belong to that race called the negro; I know that my skin is black; but, thank God, I am a gentleman. No man ever heard me use, and no man ever will hear me use in this connection, an uncivilized people—of elegant gentlemen and accomplished ladies, like these in this house, such insulting, indecent and ungentlemanly language as that indulged in by the delegate from Campbell county, notwithstanding his color, his education and his advantages?" Lyons subsided and bowed gracefully and it was all over but the shouting.

The Cattle Hastings.

Last week's CLIMAX briefly referred to the purchase by Belmont of Hastings. Dr. Neet referred to in the subjoined article from the Versailles Sun, formerly lived in Richmond, and subsequently married a daughter of Gov. Thomas P. Porter, a native of Richmond. Spendthrift is Col. O. H. Chennault's noted stallion.

Hastings, two years old, by Spendthrift, out of Imp. Cinderella, was sold at the Gilead & Daly sale in New York for $37,000. Hastings was bred by Dr. J. I. Neet, of Versailles and was sold by Dr. Neet to Gilead & Daly when a yearling for $2,800. Hastings is accorded the premier place in the horse world in America. He has won every race in which he has started with great ease. In his last race, in the Surf stakes Sheep-head Bay, he defeated the great Hand-spring with "mouth in the stirrup," in remarkably last time. Dr. Neet has a remarkably old horse, and a weanling filly who is a perfect reproduction of Hastings. Both colts are out of Imp. Cinderella, who produces nothing but high class race horses, such as Foreigner, Ferrier, the great champion, Handsome, winner of the Hyde Park stake, and the great Hastings. Hastings is entered in the Kentucky and American yearling stakes, and is expected to win them all. He has a cinch on that grade stake.

Dr. Neet has refused an offer of $5,000 for his yearling Longfellow colt, half brother to Hastings.

George Bronston Kills a Fellow Lunatic.

Sunday's Courier-Journal gives this account of Saturday's homicide at Anchorage:

"A murder was committed in the colored ward of the Lankford Asylum at Anchorage, about 2 o'clock yesterday morning. Gabriel Mitchell, a colored man about forty years old, who was sent to the asylum from Louisville during the early part of last year, was the victim, and George Bronston, colored, from Owen county, was the slayer. George Patterson, also colored, from Louisville, occupied the same ward.

"Bronston, the murderer, has been exceedingly violent of late, and it has been the practice to handcuff or secure his hands when he was placed in the cell at night. This precaution was neglected Friday night by Attending Physician Anderson, who lives in Oldham county, and in consequence of his neglect he has been discharged.

"About 2 o'clock yesterday morning Bronston wrenched an iron rod or bar from the steam heating apparatus and struck Mitchell several blows over the head, rendering him unconscious, and inflicting wounds which resulted in death about noon yesterday. Patterson, a patient, who is almost cured, gave the alarm. Bronston, frenzied as he was, seemed to know that Patterson intended and threatened his life, but Patterson succeeded in attracting attention. All efforts to revive Mitchell were vain.

"Coroner Hood held an inquest yesterday afternoon, and the facts were brought out as stated. Bronston was manacled and placed in a separate cell."

Richmond has two colored George Bronstons. One of them, "Aunt Mandy's George" is here and neither enemy nor foe. "Yaller George" has been in the Penitentiary several times, and was last sent from Madison for forging a check on J. S. Collins. His term was for three years and has about expired. He is probably the lunatic in question.

S. S. Convention of Kentucky.

The Thirtieth Annual Convention of the Kentucky Sunday-school Union will be held in Lexington on August 13, 14 and 15. The prospects are for the largest gathering of Sunday-school workers ever held in Kentucky.

The citizens of Lexington will provide for the entertainment of all delegates during the Convention. Lexington's hospitality is too well known to require any comment in these columns. Every county in the State is entitled to five delegates from the State conference.

Every school is entitled to one delegate for each hundred members or fraction thereof. Those who expect to attend should send their names before August 10 to E. C. Baldwin, at Lexington, so that homes may be provided.

The railroads have granted a rate of one fare for the round trip on presents of proper certificates, which may be secured from county officers or from Miss Manie F. Huber, State Secretary, at Louisville.

A more attractive, practical program has never been presented to the S. S. workers of Kentucky. It fairly bristles with good things.

EFFECTUAL.—Charles J. Booth, Olive-wood, Cal., says: "I have used Ayer's Pills in my family for several years, and have always found them most effectual in the relief of ailments arising from a disordered stomach, torpid liver, and constipated bowels."

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

Awarded Gold Medal Midwinter Fair, San Francisco.

Jessie Mae Hall at New Opera House.

The opening performance at the White-Bush opera house by Jessie Mae Hall was a perfect success. The actress is worthy of patronage and would draw in the largest cities. She is well supported. The attendance was good, and especially so when other attractions nearer the centre of the town for less money were claiming attention for that night only. Good houses are expected every night this week.

For The Atlanta Exposition.

The Governor has appointed Mrs. C. D. Chennault as one of the Kentucky representatives at the great Atlanta Exposition. She wishes to secure relics for exhibition and will be glad if any one having rare articles will lend them for the occasion.

On Monday night a "Midway Plaisance" was given in the court house yard to form a fund to pay expenses of the proposed exhibit. Booths of various kinds dispensed refreshments, and there was music and other attractions.

Death Trap Discovered.

A Nicholasville special of 21st to the Louisville Post says:

A colored delegate, Gaines, from Kenon county, was discussing the report of the Committee on Credentials and stated that his side had not received fair treatment at the hands of the committee. A white delegate, Lyons, of Campbell county, arose and pronounced the state of Gaines "an infernal lie." A whirl of excitement followed, and the convention, but Gaines waved his hand quietly, and in a most deliberate, distinct and pointed way replied: "I know that I belong to that race called the negro; I know that my skin is black; but, thank God, I am a gentleman. Lyons subsided and bowed gracefully and it was all over but the shouting.

South Eastern Medical Association.

This association convened in annual session at the court house on Friday. Only about twenty visiting physicians were present, outside of Madison county.

Hon. W. B. Smith delivered the address of welcome on the part of the people, and Dr. J. M. Poyntz on the part of the Practitioners Club of Richmond.

Dr. Manning, of Manchester a gentleman of distinguished standing, delivered the report of the association and opened the exercises by reading a paper on "The Ideal Physician." The remainder of the program, as announced heretofore, was carried out. Altogether the meeting was a pleasant and profitable one. It will meet next year, at Middleburg.

Election of officers:

Dr. Carpenter, of Stanford, President.

Dr. Brown, of Mt. Vernon, Vice President.

Dr. Ramsey, of London, Secretary and Treasurer.

Friday night an elaborate five-course supper was given at the Willis House by the Practitioners Club to the association and a few special friends. Dr. Cooper, of Livingston, was toast master, and being a distinguished looking retired army surgeon presided with grace and dignity. The toasts and speakers were:

The French, French Toast.

The Law, J. A. Sullivan.

The Man in the Moon, Dr. Baughman.

The Dentist, Dr. A. W. Smith.

The Banker, J. Stone Walker.

The Scorching, Dr. Vaughn.

The Politician, Gov. McCrory.

The Last Best Summer, Dr. Foster.

The speeches were all brief but of excellent points were made and nearly all embraced considerable humor.

Judge Tipton said that the relation between the press and the pill were close in Richmond. That in 1890, Dr. Thomas White Rubel started the first paper in Richmond, the Globe, and the following year more closely united the relation. He published a book of importance, a materia medica, the first medical book published west of the Alleghenies. That the late Dr. French for some time edited a newspaper in Richmond, The Plow Boy.

Monroe Salidary's black champion, Mich., Friday, the fastest mile ever made in that State.

May Morgan, formerly owned by Mr. John Embury, of Nicholasville, Ky., won the 2:18 trot at Danversport, Iowa, last week, in the fast time of 2:14.

Benetta 2:12 trot winner of the big Futurity at Lexington, last fall, made his first start this year at Columbus, last Monday, and won hands down in three straight heats.

The best time made by two-year-olds so far this year, was made in a race at Columbus, last week, by Hattie E. Time, 2:30. Mr. W. L. Spears' colt, Silver Lake, won second money, after taking one heat in 2:21.

The fast Impetuous lost her first race this season at LaCrosse, West, last Wednesday.

Monroe Salidary's black champion, Directly, 2:07, secured the race record for pacing stallions last Thursday covering the distance in 2:10.

Judge Rice owned by W. S. Hume & Co., of Silver Creek, Ky., now in the hands of Mr. Scott Hudson, of Lexington, stepped a mile in his workout last week in 2:16. This horse should win money this year, as he has every requisite for a good race horse, being steady, game and fast.

Agate beat the invincible Fantasy at LaCrosse last Friday, time 2:07, thus securing the world record for trotting geldings.

Geddes, the bay Emperor Wilkes colt, sold by Wm. Deatherage of this place, won another race over at Lexington last week. This colt has not lost a race this year.

Mr. H. C. Traynor stepped his phenomenal pacer, Andy, a mile in 2:19 last Friday, the last half of which mile he covered in 1:04, a most remarkable and thrilling feat for any horse in a half mile track. Surely if this horse keeps in form it would not be an exaggeration to say that he will have attained a mark of 2:08 before the first is on the pumpkin.

The sensational Claude M. with whom the Richmond people are right well acquainted, being owned by Mr. Frank Walton, a brother in law of Dr. Vaughn of this city, stepped a mile in 2:15 at Lexington last week. He is booked to start here this week in the 2:19 trot.

It is reported that an offer of $150,000 has been made for the game little race horse, William Penn, 2:11.

amused and knew nothing of fear.

His brother, the late Newton Dickerson, died in Nicholasville in 1887. He was many years Sheriff of our county. But it was in religion that the excellency of his character appeared pre-eminent. His piety was like the characteristics of his mind, deep, decided, firm and humble. But a list of names aroused in opposition to what he believed wrong, tyrannical and injurious. John Dickerson, the grandfather and founder of the family in Kentucky, was born in Amherst county, Va., in 1747; served in the rebel army under Washington at the battles of Princeton, Monmouth, and Yorktown. His eldest son Jeremiah Dickerson was born in Amherst county in 1776 and settled in the present limits of Jessamine county in 1794. He married the sister of Ray Moss in 1802. He died in 1860. His father never left Virginia and died there near the close of the year 1790.

Monument to Gen. Green Clay Smith.

A Times special from Washington of the 21st says:

By direction of the National Commander of the Union Veterans' Union, Monmouth, and Yorktown. His eldest son Jeremiah Dickerson was born in Amherst county in 1776 and settled in the present limits of Jessamine county in 1794. He married the sister of Ray Moss in 1802. He died in 1860.
